Tuesday, June 16th was a Historic day for Karen Feaster, Volusia County & the Daytona Beach International Airport as Karen was confirmed as the new Airport Director!

After 27 years of service, Karen becomes the first woman to lead the airport. This recognition comes at a time when we are all being challenged to keep things moving forward and folks will tell you from personal experience, either get out of the way or jump on board as this is going to be a great ride!

Karen is a graduate of Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University, the first DAB Airport Director to be accredited by the American Association of Airport Executives (AAAE), sits on the Board of the Florida Airport Council and a proud member of the Southeast Chapter - AAAE.
